BEFORE SHRI K. L. GOSAIN, PRESIDING
OFFICER, INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL,
HARYANA, CHANDIGARH
Reference No. 86 of 1967

Between

The Workmen and the Management of M/s
Milhard Private Ltd., Faridabad

Present: Shri S. L. Gupta for the Management.
Shri Roshan Lal and Shri Chaman Lal
for the Workmen.

AWARD

A trade union called the General Labour Union, (registered), Faridabad served a demand notice dated 28th February, 1967 on M/s Milhard Private Ltd; Faridabad inter-alia making a demand for the grant of dearness allowance to the workmen of the said concern. The said demand having not been met and the conciliation proceedings with regard to the same having presumably failed the industrial dispute which thus arose was referred for adjudication to this tribunal under clause (d) of sub-section 1 of Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947,—vide Haryana Government Notification No. 414-SF-III-Lab-67/26816, dated 7th September, 1967. The item of dispute as mentioned in the said notification is in the following terms:—

On receipt of the reference in this tribunal usual notices were issued to the parties and in response to the same the workmen filed their statement of claims and the management filed their written statement to the same. Another trade union namely Faridabad Engineering Workers Union made an application that they may be added as a party and the said application was accepted. In their written statement the management took a preliminary objection that the dispute in question was not an industrial dispute and that the reference with regard to the same was invalid. The pleadings of the parties gave rise to the following two issues:—

- (1) Whether the dispute in question is not an industrial dispute and is the reference invalid for the said reasons?
- (2) Whether dearness allowance should be granted to the workers? If so, with what details and from which date?

The parties were called upon to lead their evidence in respect of the said issues and the case had to be adjourned twice for this purpose and ultimately came up for evidence of the parties on 15th February, 1968. The management on that date examined only one witness namely Shri Roshan Lal, President of the General Labour Union, Faridabad, at whose instance the reference in question had been made. Shri Roshan Lal has stated that about 10 or 15 workmen of M/s Milhard private Ltd; Faridabad had come to his union when he issued the demand notice. He further stated that they became members of the said union on that date but ceased to be their members before the date of the present reference. He admitted that the said union had at the moment no member out of the workmen of M/s. Milhard private Ltd; Faridabad and that the union had no more interest in the case. He also admitted that no workmen of the factory ever paid any subscription to his union and further stated that according to the bye-laws of the union they could not enroll any member without receiving subscription from him. The evidence of this witness makes it clear that the union at whose instance the case has been referred had no right to represent the workmen of the concern at least on the date of the reference and it must, therefore, be held that the reference in question was totally invalid. The mere fact that another union has later been added as a party does not in any way improve the situation because the validity of the reference is to be determined as on the date of the said reference and it is not denied that on the said date the workmen were not represented by any union in so far as their demand in question was concerned and that the said demand had not been sponsored by any of the workmen of the concern. For the reasons given above the reference is held invalid and no adjudication of the demand is, therefore, possible.

No order as to costs.
